SPEAKERS' PREPARATION

We ask all Conference speakers to arrive, check-in and collect their name badge at least 2-hours prior to your speaking appointment.

To ensure a smooth experience, we request that speakers submit their presentations prior to attending the Conference. This is to ensure your presentation is uploaded and tested by our AV & Production team prior to you attending and presenting on the day.

Please take the time to do a thorough check of your presentation and we highly recommend not uploading your presentation at the very last minute.

If you have not yet uploaded your presentation, please read the following instructions:

- Please ensure no special fonts, password-protected presentations, or external content and all videos and audio content are embedded.
- Then click here to refer to the program to find out when you are presenting.
- Save your presentation using the following naming convention:
PresentationDate_PresentationTime_LastName_PresentationName
- Should you need to upload a new version please add "V2" to the end of your presentation name.
- Click on the button below to upload your presentation. The Dropbox link will close at 7:00pm AEST on 8 July 2025.

ARRIVING TO AUSTRALIA

Australian Quarantine and Inspection Service (AQIS)

AQIS plays an important role in keeping out unwanted pests and diseases that could devastate Australia's native wildlife, environment, tourism and agricultural industries.

To have a smooth transition through quarantine and to enjoy your participation at this Conference, it is important that you understand Australia's quarantine regulations.

Please visit <https://www.agriculture.gov.au/biosecurity-trade/travelling/to-australia> for more information.

Customs

Please ensure that along with your passport and visa, you also pack your registration confirmation letter within your carry-on luggage. You may be asked to produce this when moving through customs at your arrival airport. In addition to this, please be sure to complete your Incoming Passenger Card with all details and answer each question honestly.

Valid Visa

All visitors to Australia must have a valid visa to travel to and enter Australia (other than New Zealand passport holders, who will normally be issued a Special Category visa on arrival, provided they meet health and character requirements).

Valid Visa

Decimal currency is used in Australia with the dollar as the basic unit (100 cents = $1). Notes come in $100, $50, $20, $10 and $5. Coins come in $2, $1, 50c, 20c, 10c and 5c denominations.

Currency exchange facilities are available in most banks and airports and operate during normal business hours. To view the current foreign exchange rates, please visit www.x-rates.com

CHECKING INTO YOUR ACCOMMODATION

Checking into your hotel in Australia, our check-in is generally from 3:00pm. While hotels will do their best to accommodate early arrivals, guaranteed early check-in requires pre-booking and payment for the night prior.

Please note, as per standard hotel policy, all guests must provide a credit card or cash bond at check-in to cover incidental charges, even if accommodation is pre-paid. A hold will be placed on your card or the deposit retained until check-out. If no incidentals are incurred, no charges will be made and/or the deposit will be refunded.

Daily incidental hold amounts vary by hotel. For exact details, please contact your hotel directly.
