BIRTH DATE: April 29, 1949

NATIONALITIES: Italian, US

LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY: English, Spanish, Italian, French

EDUCATION:

B.S. / B.A. 1967 - 1971 Catholic University of Chile, Department of Sociology

Certificate 1972 Center for Mathematical Statistics (CIENES)

Ph.D. 1973 - 1977 University of Washington, Department of Sociology

ACADEMIC PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

1977 - 1979 Assistant Professor of Sociology and Demography, University of Texas
Research Associate, Population Research Center, University of Texas

June 1979 - Aug. 1979 Population Affairs Officer, Population Division, United Nations
(Professional group to estimate models of mortality for developing nations)

1979 - 1980 Assistant Professor of Sociology and Demography, University of Michigan
Research Associate, Population Studies Center, University of Michigan

1980 - 1982 Assistant Professor of Sociology and Research Associate Center for Demography and Ecology, University of Wisconsin-Madison

1982 - 1985 Associate Professor of Sociology and Research Associate Center for Demography and Ecology, University of Wisconsin-Madison

1994 - 1995	Professor of Sociology and Demography, University of Chicago
1985 - 2007	Professor of Sociology and Research Associate, Center for Demography and Ecology, University of Wisconsin-Madison
2007 - 2010	Board of Trustees Professor, Northwestern University
2010-present	Samuel H. Preston Professor of Population, University of Wisconsin-Madison

OTHER PROFESSIONAL POSITIONS:

1971 - 1973	Research Associate, Instituto de Ciencias Sociales y Desarrollo, Catholic University of Chile
May 1982 - July 1982	Visiting Professor, Istituto di Ricerca sulla Popolazione, University of Rome
Jan. 1982 - Feb. 1983	Visiting Professor, Istituto Nazionale di Statistica, Universities of Florence, Padua, and Rome; Invited Lecturer Doctoral Program
June 1985 - June 1986	Visiting Professor, Istituto Nazionale di Statistica, University of Siena, Italy
May 1990 - Sept. 1990	Visiting Professor, Istituto Nazionale di Statistica, University of Padua, Italy
Nov. 1991	Visiting Professor, Department of Statistics, University of Minas Gerais, Brazil
June 1991 - June 1992	Fellow, Center for Advanced Study in the Behavioral Sciences, Palo Alto, California
Aug. 1995	Visiting Professor, Centro Centroamericano de Población, Universidad de Costa Rica
Aug, 2004	Visiting Professor, CEDDU, Colegio de Mexico

HONORS AND AWARDS:

1972 - 1973	Fellowship, Center for Mathematical Statistics-CIENES, Organization for American States (OAS)
1973 - 1975	Fellowship, Ford Foundation
1975 - 1977	Fellowship, Population Council
1977	Howard B. Woolston Award, Department of Sociology, University of

Washington

- 1985 Romnes Award, University of Wisconsin-Madison
- 1988 Guggenheim Fellow
- 1989 Fellow, Sociological Research Association
- 1991 Fellow, Center for Advanced Study in the Behavioral Sciences
- 1995 H. Edwin Young Professor of International Studies and Sociology, University of Wisconsin-Madison
- 2004 Who's Who in Social Sciences, Higher Education
- 2005 Fellow, American Academy of Arts and Sciences
- 2005 Merit Award, National Institutes of Health (NIH)
- 2007 Board of Trustees Professor, Northwestern University
- 2009 Samuel H. Professor, University of Wisconsin
- 2013 Fellow, American Academy for the Advancement of Sciences
- 2014 Doctor Honoris Causa, Universite` Catolique de Louvain-Belgium
- 2014 Editor's Choice Demographic Research

SELECTED PROFESSIONAL POSITIONS HELD:

- 1983 - 1985 Panel on Decennial Census Methodologies
National Research Council
- 1985 - 1989 Committee on Social and Biological Correlates of Mortality
International Union for the Scientific Studies of Population (IUSSP)
- 1988 - 1991 Advisory Group, The Global Program on AIDS
World Health Organization
- 1988 - 1990 Task Force on AIDS, Population Division, United Nations.
- 1990 - 1994 Social Science and Population Studies Section
National Institute of Child Health and Human Development
- 1994 - 1998 Population Research Sub-Committee
National Institute of Child Health and Human Development

1996 - 1999	Board of Directors, Population Association of America
1996 - 2002	Committee on Population (CPOP), National Research Council
1998 - 2006	Academic Coordinator for Project SABE (Health and Welfare of Elderly in Latin America), Pan American Health Organization (PAHO)
2002	Planning Committee, Demographic and Behavioral Science Branch, National Institute of Child Health and Human Development
2002	Mendel Sheps Award Committee on Mathematical Demography, Population Association of America
2002	Vice-President, Population Association of America
2006	President, Population Association of America

SELECTED CONSULTING POSITIONS HELD:

1978	Department of Health and Human Resources, State of Texas Projection and Estimation of Small-Area Populations
1985	U.S. Department of Commerce Statistical Evaluation of Training Programs
1990	Population Division, United Nations and World Health Organization Demographic Impact of HIV/AIDS
1995	Population Division, United Nations Mortality in Developing Countries
1998	Pan American Health Organization Health Conditions of Elderly in Latin America
1999	World Bank Demographic Aging in Latin America
2000	Population Division, United Nations Living Arrangements of the Elderly in Developing Countries
2001 - 2003	Pan American Health Organization Demographic Aging in Latin America

SELECTED INTRAMURAL ORGANIZATIONAL EXPERIENCE

1993 - 1998	Director, Training Program, Center for Demography and Ecology, University of Wisconsin-Madison
-------------	---

- 1993 - 1996 Chair, Curriculum Committee, Department of Sociology,
University of Wisconsin-Madison
- 1996 - 1999 Admissions and Award Committee, Department of Sociology,
University of Wisconsin-Madison
- 1998 - 2007 Steering Committee, Department of Population and Health Sciences
Medical School, University of Wisconsin-Madison
- 1998 - 2007 Admissions and Award Committee, Department of Population and Health Sciences
Medical School, University of Wisconsin-Madison
- 2002 - 2007 Member, Task Force on Health Sciences Divisional Committee
University of Wisconsin-Madison
- 2004 - 2007 Director, Center for Demography and Ecology
University of Wisconsin-Madison
- 2001 – 2010 Director, Fogarty International Population Center, National Institutes of Health
University of Wisconsin-Madison
- 2010-present Director Center for Demography and Health of Aging
University of Wisconsin-Madison

SELECTED ARTICLES PRESENTED AT MEETINGS (not updated)

2012

“The enduring effects of smoking in Latin America” Paper presented at the Population Association of America Meetings, San Francisco, April 2012

“The fragility of the future and the tug of the past: longevity in Latin America and the Caribbean” Paper presented at the Population Association of America Meetings, San Francisco, April 2012

“Smoke and Mirrors: the future of longevity in low to middle income countries Seminar Population Research Center , University of Texas

“Life expectancy and cohort noise” Keynote address, plenary session Annual Meeting Mexican Population Association

Taught a one week long course on Survival analysis to faculty and doctoral students Colegio de Mexico and Universidad Autonoma de Mexico

2011

“Looking backward to move forward: relations between early childhood and the adult education health gradient” Paper presented at the Workshop on Early Childhood and Adult Outcomes, Institute for Poverty, University of Michigan

“The future of demography” Keynote address, plenary session, Annual Meeting Mexican Population

Association.

“Does intelligence affect longevity?” Seminar Center for Population Studies, Harvard University

Taught a one week long course on Survival analysis to faculty and doctoral students Department of Public Health and Population University of Cordoba, Argentina

“Early health, nutritional status, and educational attainment in low income countries (with B. Novak and Laeticia de Souza). Paper presented at the Annual Conference International Statistical Institute (IIASA) , Vienna, Austria

2010

"The Size of Health Selection Effects" Seminar Department of Sociology and Population Research Center, University of Ohio

“Migrant Selection, Protection, and Acculturation: A Bi-national Perspective on Older Adults” Department of Epidemiology, Medical School. Loyola University

“Looking backward to move forward: relations between early childhood and the adult education health gradient” Center for Population Studies, Harvard University

"One Hundred Years of Mortality in Latin America and the Caribbean: The Fragile Path from Hunger to Longevity" Labor Economics Workshop Department of Economics Northwestern University

"The fragility of the future and the tug of the past: longevity in Latin America and the Caribbean” Under review Population and Development Review, Seminar Center for Population Studies, Business School, University of Chicago

2009

“The science of early childhood and its impact on adult outcomes” Keynote presentation at the National Research Council Meeting on Influences of Early childhood, Washington D.C., October 2009

“Aging in developing countries” Keynote address given at the ECOSOC 2009 High Level Segment, United Nations and World Health Organization, Geneva, June 2009

“Social inequality and disparities in health: connections over the life course” Paper presented at the Workshop on Life Course and Complexity, NIH, Washington D.C. October 2009

“Family support networks and population ageing” Paper presented at the Seminar on Intergenerational Transfers, UNFPA, IPR-Northwestern University and Doha Family Research Institute, June 2009, Doha Qatar.

“Has the Hispanic paradox persisted in childhood health”
Population Association of America Meetings, Detroit, 2009

“Social inequality and disparities in health: their connection over the life course”
Seminar given at the Population Research Center, University of Minnesota, April 2009

“Early conditions, human capital formation and aggregate economic growth”
Yearly presentation at the Fogarty Institute, Washington D.C.

2008

“SES Gradients Among Mexicans in the US and in Mexico: a new twist to the Hispanic Paradox?” Paper presented at the Latin American Institute, University of San Diego, March 2008

“A Contrarian View: Is the Room for Improvements in Life Expectancy in Latin America and the Caribbean Shutting Down?” Paper Presented at the Population Association of America Meetings, New Orleans, April 2008

“SES gradients among Mexicans in the US and in Mexico: A new twist to the Hispanic Paradox?” Paper presented at the Department of Epidemiology, Loyola University, March, 2008

“The size of selection effects”
Lecture given at the Population Research Center, University of California at Los Angeles, February 2007

“The potential influence of early conditions on healthy life expectancy and longevity”
Yearly presentation at the Fogarty Institute, Washington D.C.

“The Hispanic Paradox: is there one?” Paper presented at the Workshop on health and mortality in the US, Population Research Center and Department of Epidemiology, University of Chicago

2007

Social class health and mortality differentials: are there important selection effects
Invited DeJong Lecture in Social Demography, October 2007

“The study of elderly Puerto Ricans”
Paper presented at the Meeting on Harmonization of Surveys of Elderly, National Institute of Aging, Chiang-Mai, June 2007

“Health and Life Expectancy for Latin America and Caribbean Aging Populations”
Paper presented at the GSA meeting, San Francisco, November 2007

“The size of health selection effects”
Lecture given at the Institute for Policy Research, Northwestern University, September 2007

“Models, behavior, epidemics and population growth”

Lecture given at the Department of Genetics, UW-Madison.

The contribution of past medical innovations on current aging in Latin America?
Yearly presentation at the Fogarty Institute, Washington D.C.
